The 3 new Domke Photo Courier Bags are the solution for today's photographer, who needs to carry their camera at all times, but doesn't always want to look like it. Fashioned after the versatile bike messenger bag, they mix style with function and versatility.

The Medium & Large Photo Courier Bags have a sleeve in the front of the bag, under the front flap, to slide your laptop. A storage pocket under the flap of all 3 models is the perfect place to store your cell phone & keys, out of the way yet quickly accessible. The bags are held securely closed by generous full length Velcro panels, with added cover flaps to silence them in quiet shooting situations.
